Donor Bill of Rights

The staff and volunteers of the NIU Foundation adhere to the Donor Bill of Rights, developed by the American Association of Fund-Raising Counsel (AAFRC), Association for Healthcare Philanthropy (AHP), the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE), and the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP).

Philanthropy is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to the quality of life. To assure that philanthropy merits the respect and trust of the general public, and that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in the Foundation and its mission, we declare that all donors have these rights:

1. To be informed of the Foundation's mission, of the way the Foundation intends to use gifts, and of its capacity to use gifts effectively for their intended purposes.
2. To be informed of the identity of those serving on the Foundation's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
3. To have access to the Foundation's most recent financial statements.
4. To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
5. To receive appropriate acknowledgment and recognition.
6. To be assured that information about their donations is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
7. To expect that all relationships with individuals representing organizations of interest to the donor will be professional in nature.
8. To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the Foundation or hired solicitors.
9. To have the opportunity for their names to be deleted from mailing lists that the Foundation may intend to share.
10. To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.
